ABOUT SERENA POSTEL

She's been called "Winnipeg's Firecracker" and the "love child" of Ani DiFranco and Sarah Harmer. Anyone who witnesses Serena Postel perform is blown away by the volume of raw talent and unbridled energy. She displays a mosaic of emotion and experience that mesmerizes an audience. Her charismatic voice and captivating songs are complimented by percussive guitar style and razor-sharp wit, resulting in any show being the one to remember.

Since starting her musical journey, Serena has played the NXNE Music Festival (Toronto), the OCFF Conference (Ottawa), the Winnipeg Fringe Festival, the Brandon Folk Festival, the Trout Forest Festival, embarked on three cross-Canada tours, and gotten airplay on CBC Radio, UFMF, CKUW and KICK-FM. She has shared stages with some of Canada's finest folk artists including Nathan Rogers, NQ Arbuckle, Coco Love Alcorn, Romi Mayes, Twilight Hotel and Dan Frechette. With the release of her new album in early 2010, Serena plans on touring across Canada, the US and Australia, because on the road "you have no choice but to be heading somewhere..." www.serenapostel.com
